About the property and location

This supported living service is a detached four-bedroomed bungalow. This service is located in a quiet residential area of Ottershaw, just outside the town of Woking, Surrey. The town has a shopping centre, gym, cinema, restaurants and more plus easy access to London from the train station.

The local area is a small village with shops and local amenities only a five-to-ten-minute walk away. There are bus stops close by and it's a short bus ride to the larger towns of Woking and Chertsey.

Facilities

The home comprises of four single bedrooms, with a large shared accessible bathroom/toilet. There is a communal lounge and dining room, a spacious and fully-equipped kitchen and a laundry room.

The property has a large rear garden, and in the warmer months there are facilities available for people to enjoy the outside space. Everyone has their own bedroom which is decorated and personalised according to their tastes and needs. Communal areas are decorated in discussion with the wishes of the residents as a group

Person profile

The service is currently home to three residents with a maximum capacity for four.

It is suited to people 60 years plus and is of mixed gender. People are currently of mixed needs.

Our support

Support Hours at this service are both shared hours and some one-to-one to provide support with personal care, medication, upskilling daily living tasks, maintaining their tenancy and accessing day services.

Avenues believes everyone should enjoy a full life and play an active part in their support. All our packages recognise the distinct needs, ambitions, likes and dislikes of each person.
