About the property and location

This five-bedroomed service is tucked away in a peaceful residential corner of charming Chobham in Surrey, with its quiet leafy streets and village vibe. The High Street is a five minute stroll and is lined with cafes, bakeries, gift shops, and services including hair salons and dry cleaners.

Chobham Common is one of the largest local green space, perfect for walks. There's also a community centre offering yoga, pilates, and regular club events.

Woking is also close enough for trains and bigger shops.

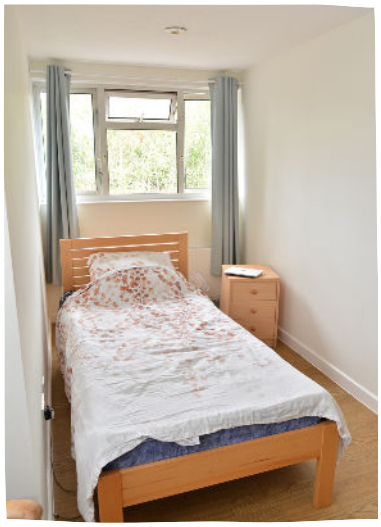
Facilities

The five generous single bedrooms all have en-suite bathrooms. There is a communal lounge and separate dining area. In addition it has a large fitted kitchen and handy laundry room.

The property has a spacious garden, perfect for summer barbecues.

Bedrooms are decorated to suit each person's style. Shared areas are updated in consultation with residents.

This is not just a house, it's a community.



Person profile

Current typical support needs at this service are medium to high learning disabilities and autism.

The service includes a blend of shared support hours and some one-to-one time to help with personal care, medication, daily living skills, and engaging with the local community. Our goal is to support independence.

Our support

Our ambition is for people to experience a sense of belonging, and enjoy a fuller life, no matter how complex their personal situation. That's why all our support packages are unique, recognising the distinct needs, ambitions, likes and dislikes of each person.
