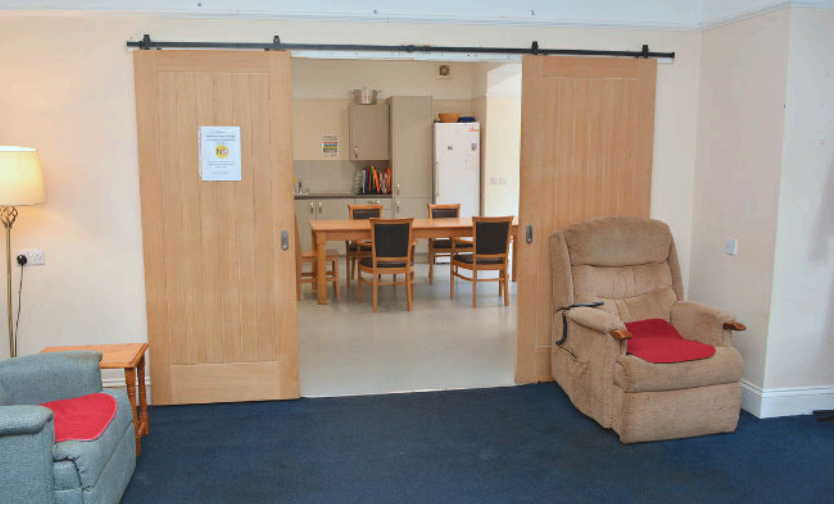
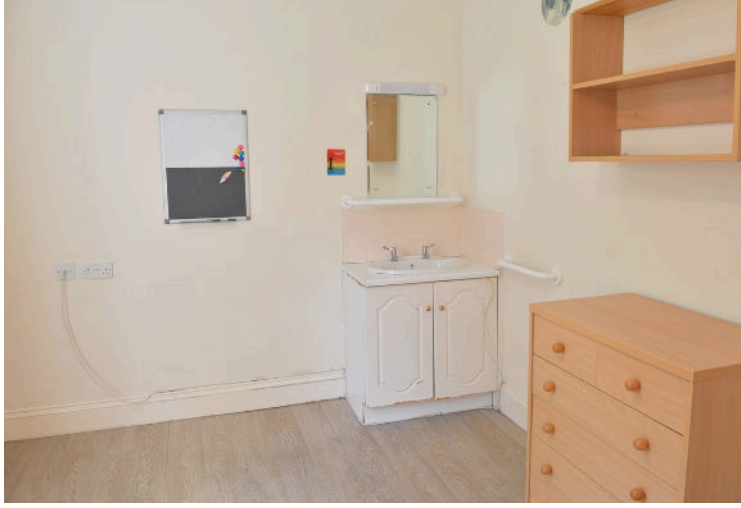
About the property and location

This property is set in peaceful Caterham, Surrey, serene countryside just a short distance from London. It's a warm, small-town feel with crafts, pubs, local coffee shops, the occasional festival, and a real neighbourhood spirit. There are several activities for people with learning disabilities nearby.

Church Walk Shopping Centre and Caterham Valley's High Street offer everything from large supermarkets to indie shops, cafés, and butchers. In terms of green spaces, Queen's Park and the North Downs trails are perfect for a stroll.





Facilities

This is a six-bedroomed property with shared bathrooms. The bedrooms are spacious, light and airy singles and located on the ground floor.
There are large communal living and dining areas, plus a beautiful garden, ideal for socialising outside. The kitchen and laundry areas are also fully accessible.

Bedrooms are designed to be personalised, the decor is up to the person. Shared areas are decorated in consultation with everyone.

This property is perfect for someone ready to live life their way in a thoughtful, caring environment.

Person profile

Typical support needs of those that currently live there are high learning disabilities and autism.

This service has a blend of shared support hours and some one-to-one. This is to support with personal care, medication, daily living skills, and engaging with the local community. The goal is to support independence.

Our support

Our ambition is for people to experience a sense of belonging, and enjoy a fuller life, no matter how complex their personal situation. That's why all our support packages are unique, recognising the distinct needs, ambitions, likes and dislikes of each person.
